

DISABILITY RIGHTS NORTH CAROLINA

DISABILITY RIGHTS NORTH CAROLINA CAREER OPPORTUNITY – Investigator/Advocate

Agency Description: Disability Rights North Carolina (DRNC), a 501(c)(3) nonprofit, is the only organization that provides free legal advocacy services to people with all types of disabilities, of all ages, throughout North Carolina. We are NC's designated Protection and Advocacy agency and recognized leader in advancing disability rights, well established and positioned for growth. (www.DisabilityRightsNC.org)

Job Description:

Conduct methodical, objective investigations of serious allegations of abuse and neglect including those involving deaths, for achieving individual and systemic policy change to protect the rights of individuals with disabilities and prevent future occurrences. Monitoring conditions in service settings to identify and prevent abuse, and other rights violations.

Demonstrates the following core values: relentless pursuit of results, respect and humility, personal responsibility, positive outlook, problem solving, communication, organization, and effective internal and external relationships.

Job Duties include:

- Provides information and short-term assistance to Disability Rights NC clients
- Conduct abuse/neglect investigations consistent with Disability Rights NC's investigative protocol including interviewing witnesses and managing evidence
- Stay up to date with the federal statutes and regulations relating to Disability Rights NC's access authority
- Stay up to date with state and federal statutes, regulations and policies governing care and treatment of people with disabilities
- Monitor assigned facilities to prevent, detect and address instances of abuse, neglect or exploitation consistent with Disability Rights NC's monitoring protocol
- Interview people with disabilities, providing information and self-advocacy assistance to clients
- Identify facts and develop creative solutions
- Prepare reports, articles, and draft legislation and regulations

- Develop staff training programs on substantive issues related to abuse and neglect investigations and clients' rights
- Collaborate with others regarding ongoing investigations and monitoring
- Collaborate with co-workers about trends, issues and agency activities
- Performs other duties as assigned.

Requirements:

- Bachelor's degree preferred with experience in conducting investigations, such as those performed by law enforcement, journalists, regulators or other types of investigations
- Direct experience with or general knowledge of services and issues affecting individuals with disabilities
- Recognition of the human and civil rights of people with disabilities
- Proficiency in using computers for word processing, data collection and communication
- Effective communication skills regarding complex factual situations
- Ability to organize and prioritize tasks
- Ability to work independently with minimal supervision

Desirable qualifications:

- Life experience with disability
- Experience in a legal services, nonprofit or public interest environment
- Ability to communicate in ASL, Spanish or another non-English language

Essential functions (with or without accommodations):

1. Ability to travel including overnight
2. Ability to occasionally work long hours and/or weekends
3. Ability to interact with people with disabilities
4. Ability to communicate effectively
5. Ability to research complex issues
6. Ability to input and access data in the agency's database.

Disability Rights NC is an Equal Opportunity Employer. We do not discriminate in any aspect of employment with regard to race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, national origin, age, disability, veteran's status or any other characteristic protected by state or federal law. Individuals who increase the diversity of our team are encouraged to apply. We participate in E-verify.

Compensation Package that is competitive with other non-profits: The hiring range is $18-$27/per hour, depending on experience. Disability Rights NC offers excellent benefits which include 100% employer-paid health, dental, vision, life and disability as well as generous paid time off and retirement plan with an employer match.

Send a detailed letter of interest explaining your qualifications and interest in the position, resume, and writing sample of no more than five pages to:

resumes.hr@disabilityrightsnc.org. Include Investigator/Advocate in the subject line of the email. No phone calls please.

Closing Date: Position will remain open until filled.