

2020 Access the Vote NC Summer Internship

Disability Rights NC is pleased to announce that we are now accepting applications for the first annual Access the Vote NC summer internship. Applications are open to college students in degree programs. Students must identify as a person with a disability with an expressed interest in voter engagement, access, and mobilization. This is a paid internship.

Disability Rights North Carolina is a non-profit legal organization. We are North Carolina's Protection and Advocacy system for all individuals with disabilities in the state. The mission of Disability Rights North Carolina is to protect the legal rights of people with disabilities through individual and systems advocacy.

In our representation of individuals with disabilities, we take a multifaceted approach. We focus on individual representation and advocacy to effect systems change. This opportunity will offer students a variety of experiences both in and out of the office. For more information on the work we do, please visit our website at www.disabilityrightsn.org.

Our voters' rights interns will develop a voter engagement plan for their campus and community, and learn how to:

- Review and analyze data from specific poll sites
- Monitor poll sites for accessibility
- Develop social media campaigns
- Organize Get Out The Vote (GOTV) campaigns

Intern responsibilities include:

- Completing weekly tasks that will be incorporated into the voter engagement plan
- Conduct visits to poll sites in their community
- Provide ongoing open communication with DRNC about program, data and updates.
- Attending community meetings
- Cooperate with DRNC and community partners to build skills and capacity

Who Should Apply?

We are seeking energetic and self-motivated NC college students who identify as a person with disabilities. The applicant should be passionate about voter engagement and want to ensure that voting sites and the voting process are accessible to people with disabilities.

To apply for DRNC's 2020 Access the Vote NC summer internship you must:

- Be passionate about voter engagement, mobilization and access
- Be excited to take on a challenge and learn new skills
- Be a resident of North Carolina
- Be enrolled in a degree or certificate program in a North Carolina college or university
- Identify as a person with a disability (visible, invisible, or acquired)
- Have achieved at least sophomore standing or the equivalent
- Have completed two semesters of college-level English or the equivalent

Commitment:

This internship is 6 weeks in duration, beginning June 1, 2020. Orientation will be held in Raleigh (food and lodging provided). You will complete the remainder of the internship in an office space in the county of your college campus.

Application Requirements:

1. Completed application
2. Two references. At least one reference should be academic.
3. Resume
4. Statement of interest, no more than 500 words

All applications should be submitted in pdf or Microsoft word format. Only complete applications will be considered. Late applications will not be accepted.
