

KNOW YOUR RIGHTS

Medications for Opioid Use Disorder (MOUD) in Jail

Opioid Use Disorder is a treatable medical condition, which is considered a disability under the Americans with Disability Act (ADA). Jails are required to provide medications for opioid use disorder under the ADA and 8th/14th Amendments of the Constitution.

LEARN MORE AND SHARE YOUR STORY

If you, or a loved one, have an opioid use disorder (OUD) and went to jail in NC, Disability Rights NC would like to hear more about your experience. Scan the code above to learn more about this project and your rights. Want to share your story? Scan to fill out our online form or call 919-856-2195 ext 240.

www.disabilityrightsn.org